LA FOLLETTE SEIZES AVIATION DEBATE TO RE-OPEN FIGHT ON CONSCRIPTION

MRS. BUCHANAN TELLS OF TRIPS MADE BY CROUCH

SENSATIONAL GRAIN COMPANY PROBE HAS BEGUN IN BELTON COURT.

J. C. CROUCH, DEFENDANT, BUT BROTHER IS NOT LOCATED

BROTHER IS MAN WITH WHOM MRS. BUCHANAN IS SAID TO HAVE MADE VOYAGE.

Special to The News. Belton, July 17.—The taking of testimony in the J. C. Crouch case was begun in the district court here this morning, District Judge F. M. Spann presiding.

The jury in the case is as follows: J. M. Ray, H. P. Layne, J. L. Dillon, A. E. Walker, L. C. Clemmons, J. P. Helms, W. H. Steele, A. H. Hunt, A. L. Shattuck, W. J. Stone, Lewis Cox and W. S. Hunter Jr.

The state is represented by District Attorney M. M. White, A. L. Curtis, Winbourne Pearle and W. W. Hair.

The defense is represented by Lud Williams of Waco, Dewitt Bowman of Temple and J. H. Everts of Belton.

Mrs. Margaret Buchanan, who was the secretary to A. B. Crouch, who was at the head of the A. B. Crouch Grain company, which was wrecked, is present and will be the state's witness. Mrs. Buchanan, it is said, left Temple with A. B. Crouch and traveled extensively with him, finally landing in Australia, where A. B. Crouch is supposed to be at present.

She returned to Temple several months ago and is also under indictment by a Bell county grand jury for forgery. She was also indicted by the federal grand jury at Waco.

J. C. Crouch, who is on trial, was in charge of the branch house which the Crouch Grain company of Temple maintained in Fort Worth.

Two Temple banks lost very heavily in failure of the A. B. Crouch Grain company, one of them shortly afterward doubling its capital stock.

NAMES TOMPKINS AS MAN ON ROAD WITH DEAD BODIES

By Associated Press. July 17.—George Johnston, Pa., July 17.—George Johnston, a mine foreman, today identified George C. Tompkins as the man whom he declared he saw walking in the direction of an automobile on a country road near here Sunday, and in which he said he glimpsed the bodies of a woman and a boy.

The identification was made in the jail where Tompkins is held charged with the murder of Edmund I. Humphries, Mrs. Humphries and their son, Edmund Jr., aged 15. Tompkins thru his attorneys today waived preliminary examination.

MORE RAIN FALLS IN WACO SECTION

Another splash of rain came patterning down slowly shortly after noon Tuesday, raising hopes which were later dashed insofar as Waco is concerned.

The precipitation was very slight, only enough to lay the dust good, but west of the city it grew heavier and in the vicinity of McGregor and not far from Moody good heavy showers were reported. Points to the northwest of Waco reported heavy showers.

A telephone message was received by T. J. Primm from his place in Bosque county, telling of fine rains.

COLUMBUS STREET CHURCH PLANS FOR THE SOLDIERS

Columbus Street Baptist church is laying plans which include amusement, intellectual treats and other things in addition to the moral and spiritual tonic which will be offered the army boys. Plans of this church are being carefully considered, and by the time the camp is a reality a definite program will have been evolved.

SANTIAGO IS CONFIDENT EXPORT RESTRICTIONS NOT TO HAMPER SO. AMERICA

By Associated Press. Santiago, July 17.—The measures adopted by the United States government concerning foreign commerce are justifiable in the opinion of the Mercurio. It expresses satisfaction with the assurances that have come from the Washington government that the countries of South America will not suffer from these measures of restriction.

Give the Chamber of Commerce the Money It Needs; Then You Can Expect Big Industry to Look This Way

THE Chamber of Commerce has organized for another year. Officers and committees met at the Raleigh Tuesday to survey the work Waco has to do in connection with the army camp. An account of this meeting will be found in another column.

The undercurrent of the meeting revealed that the Chamber of Commerce, successful in the army camp project, is straining at the leash ready to move forward in making Waco the industrial center to which her position entitles her.

We are all familiar with the argument. What we need is performance.

THE News considers the Chamber of Commerce has one big, permanent job. That job is to bring new industries of large size to Waco.

The army camp foreshadows an influx of many thousands of new citizens with the new wealth they will bring. Those new residents here will prosper. Out of increased prosperity a part should be set aside for permanent city building—building that will last for decades and place Waco on a permanent industrial foundation.

President J. M. Penland has proven an excellent business manager in his private and public activity. He should be given adequate funds during the next twelve months to act as business manager in the community business of building Waco industrially.

Post cards never brought worthwhile industry to a city. Telegrams rarely entice capitalists to the point of personal inspection and investment. THE WAY TO GET BUSINESS IS TO GO AND GET IT.

THE traffic department of the Chamber of Commerce has been an excellent investment. Without a traffic department other cities in Waco's railroad zone would obtain transportation advantages which would penalize Waco. A traffic department is the city's business watch dog.

But the Chamber of Commerce has had just about enough money properly to finance a traffic department. It must have a much larger amount properly to conduct the business of selling Waco's future to industries of national scope.

THE News believes Waco is ideally situated for a mammoth cotton manufacturing industry. New England cotton capitalists are building million-dollar mills in Georgia and South Carolina. Why not in Waco—the heart of Texas, which produces one-third of the cotton in the United States?

Under the slogan, "Give Penland the money to do it," the membership and finance committees of the Chamber should carry through a campaign for a fifty-thousand dollar fund for the Chamber of Commerce for the next twelve months.

The business man of large calibre who has been contributing ten dollars a month should increase his subscription to fifty dollars a month. The twenty-five dollar man should increase to one hundred dollars a month. Full memberships in the Chamber should be raised from twelve to twenty-five dollars a year. Associate members who wish to help but who cannot afford this community effort, should be retained at the present minimum of twelve dollars per annum.

The jobbing and manufacturing interests of Waco should at least carry the full cost of the Chamber's traffic department. Memberships from retailers, property owners and general business should provide a large enough fund for a consistent year's effort to awaken the country to Waco's industrial advantages. The way to further our chances as a cotton manufacturing center is for the proper men to present Waco conditions in Boston and New England, the center of cotton manufacturing capital.

THE war should not deter us. Other communities will hesitate and believe it is of no use to attempt industrial expansion during war time. Those of us in the cotton belt know that the future of cotton is perhaps the soundest of any American business. The Eastern cotton mill owner also knows it. He knows, too, that the drift of all manufacturing is toward the source of the raw supply. He has already acted on that knowledge in the establishment of mills in South Atlantic states.

His next move will be into Texas and Waco should be the first to exploit the Texas opportunity to the man with the money and the knowledge.

REGENTS AXE COMES DOWN ON TWO LAW HEADS AT UNIVERSITY

Special to The News. Austin, July 17.—John C. Townes, dean of the University law school, and William S. Simkins, law professor, both veteran members of the law faculty, have received notice of a motion made by Chairman Allen of the regents pending before the board asking for their dismissal. Action will be taken when the regents meet in October.

"I fully expect the regents, when they meet in October, will cause the retirement of Judge Townes and myself," said Judge Simkins.

By Associated Press. London, July 17.—The American consulate is swamped tonight from Americans serving in the British army who wish to join the United States forces. Counsel Skinner has been unable to advise them whether it will be permitted. A large number of officers may be transferred. Many of them already have been informed that they may join Major-General Pershing and those who do so will assist in training American troops in France.

"TRENCH WARFARE" IN CHICAGO TOTAL TO ONE

By Associated Press. Chicago, July 17.—Trench warfare has claimed its first victim in Chicago. It is claimed that Thomas Deutsch, aged 11, and his companions built tunnels on a vacant lot here "just like they had in France."

Today the "warfare" was continued and a portion of the "trenches" collapsed, burying several of the boys. All extricated themselves but young Deutsch whose body was recovered thirty minutes later by rescuers.

RUSS IN STRATEGIC RETREAT TO LOMNICA—FRENCH BEAT GERMANS

SUCCESS FOR BOTH SIDES CHARACTERIZE STRUGGLE ON WESTERN FRONT, WHILE ARTILLERY BEGINS BOOMING IN RUMANIA.

By Associated Press. There has been no relaxation in the intensity of the fighting between the French and the Germans on the various sectors of the line in France from the region of Soissons eastward through the Champagne and into the district north-east of Verdun.

Victories are recorded for both sides—for the Germans along the Laon-Soissons road in the penetration and destruction of French trenches and in Champagne north of Mont Teton, where the German forces previously had been repulsed with heavy casualties, and for the French in the Verdun sector, where, in a mighty effort they took German lines on a front of a mile and a half and to a depth of about two-thirds of a mile.

The success of the Germans north of Mont Teton was obtained through persistent counter attacks on positions they had lost last Saturday. The German forces had been extremely heavy. While the German war office asserts all the old German positions were recaptured, the Paris official communication says they only regained a footing at certain points in the French element.

With the British. Artillery duels and small operations carried out by raiding parties are taking place on the line where the British are facing the Germans.

Continued air fighting is still in progress in this region, in the latest of which six German machines were driven down and three others forced down out of control by British airmen, whose machines all returned from their forays.

Russians Move Back. The Russians in East Galicia have been forced for strategic reasons to evacuate the town of Kalusz and take up positions on the southern side of the Lomnica river. The important crossing of the Lomnica was made secure by the Russians after they had made their retreat. Previous to the movement the Germans had carried out persistent attacks on Kalusz, but the Russians had repulsed all of them.

Heavy artillery fighting continues along the northern Russian front, but as yet the extent of the operations has not been detailed. In Rumania, along the Danube, Russian scouts captured a village and most of the defenses, but later abandoned the positions. In none of the other theatres has there been a battle of any great moment.

STRIKE BREAKERS RUSHED TO OKLAHOMA FIELDS TO COMBAT 4,000 STRIKERS

By Associated Press. Tulsa, Okla., July 17.—Nearly 4,000 men, employed on the Prairie pipe lines, now under construction from Cushing to St. Louis, are on strike today, according to information received here. The men demanded an increase from $3 to $4 a day. Hundreds of men are said to have been imported to break the strike at Skiatook, where the trouble took place.

CAMP LABOR AT SAN ANTONIO NOW GIVEN $5 FOR 8-HOUR DAY

By Associated Press. San Antonio, July 17.—A number of changes in the type of buildings for Camp Travis, together with authority to construct a total of 1,400, of which 200 are to be of the two-story, 200 men type of barracks, have been received by the contractors. The augmented plans provide for 4,000 men, of which 40,000 can be cared for in the two-story buildings, and the remaining 3,000 in the one-story, 167-men and 53-men barracks.

It was also announced by construction government contractors that beginning Wednesday morning carpenters will receive $5.00 per day of eight hours and time and a half for overtime. A ten-hour day is now being maintained on all cantonment work.

DEUTSCHLAND AGENT IN ESCAPE FROM AMERICA

By Associated Press. Baltimore, July 17.—Capt. Fredericks Hirsch, who handled the marine end in this country of the merchant submarine Deutschland on her voyages here, has escaped from American soil and is reported to have reached Germany safely. Friends in Baltimore received word this week that he had reached Germany four weeks ago. Capt. Hirsch slipped out of South Embury, N. J., shortly after the declaration of war, April 6, on a small sailing vessel with a crew of three men. Advice to his friends is that he and his three companions have reached Bremen, the entry port of the Deutschland.

MALONE TO QUIT OVER SUFFS ROW IS NOW RUMORED

NEW YORK CUSTOMS COLLECTOR COMES TO WOMEN'S AID AND GETS IN BAD.

HOLDS LENGTHY CONFAB WITH WILSON YESTERDAY

LEAVES WHITE HOUSE "VISIBLY PERTURBED"—REFUSES TO MAKE STATEMENT.

By Associated Press.

Washington, July 17.—The sixteen members of the Woman's party, arrested Saturday in an attempt to picket the white house, were sentenced today to pay a fine of $25 or serve sixty days in the District of Columbia workhouse at Occoquan, Va. They decided to take the sixty-day sentence. An appeal will be taken.

The sixteen women were taken to the workhouse and each was given a shower bath and exchanged her clothes for a heavy prison dress. Tomorrow they will be assigned to the sewing room of the prison, where they will work several hours daily.

Tonight department headquarters was in a flurry over the question whether the women should be permitted to serve their sentences without protest or whether their cases should be appealed.

Dudley Field Malone, collector of customs at New York, who returned here to testify for the women, later asked the court to be permitted to act as their counsel. His request was granted.

Instead of taking any legal steps on behalf of the women, Malone went to the house for a long conference with President Wilson. What happened was not revealed, but Malone came away visibly perturbed and there were many rumors he would resign his collectorship and would take steps actively in the fight of the suffragists who repeatedly have been in police court in recent weeks for their demonstrations at President Wilson's doorsteps.

These rumors Mr. Malone would neither deny nor affirm.

GOETHALS-DENMAN SHIP ROW HANGING FIRE AT WASHINGTON

By Associated Press. Washington, July 17.—Differences between Chairman Denman of the shipping board and Gen. Goethals, manager of the board fleet corporation which have halted the government's ship building program, apparently are far from a settlement tonight.

Gen. Goethals, who yesterday postponed his plans for constructing two great government shipbuilding plants and for requisitioning ships now building, made no move today towards going ahead with his program, nor would he add to his statement of last night that Mr. Denman had asked for delay to give the shipping board time to go over his plans.

Chairman Denman put the whole responsibility for the delay on Goethals whom he charged was slow in furnishing information to him yesterday concerning his plans.

PRAGUE GERMAN COUNCIL VOTES DISTRUST IN NEW GOVERNMENT AT BERLIN

By Associated Press. Amsterdam, July 17.—The German national council at Prague has unanimously adopted a resolution expressing its distrust in the present government owing to its attitude toward the Czechs and especially because of the recent amnesty decree affecting them. The council demands the unrestricted right of "self-determination" for German Bohemia within the bounds of the Austrian state, the establishment of the state language, and the creation of a German province of Bohemia with its own diet.

GERMANS BREAK SAFES IN ST. QUENTIN BANKS

By Associated Press. Geneva, July 17.—A French lawyer interned at Geneva received news today from St. Quentin that the Germans recently forced the safes of all banks in St. Quentin and stole the money, notes and script, and even the private account books, which were sent to Germany. The operation was carried out before the eyes of the directors and employees, who refused to open the safe.

LAVA SPURTS 2,500 FEET INTO AIR AND BURIES GROUND BELOW

By Associated Press.

Catania, Sicily, July 17.—The most recent eruption of Mount Aetna, although very brief, caused a panic among the population of the nearby districts in consequence of the enormous quantities of lava discharged which surpassed the previous records. Professor Pond, an expert on volcanic activities, on returning from a visit to the crater after witnessing the phenomena, said:

The eruption was one of wonderful grandeur. The column of lava reached a height of 2,500 feet above the crater and in 35 minutes the area for a mile around was covered with a thickness varying from ten to twenty feet deep.

REDFIELD FIRES PRATT IN EXPORT ROW—WIDE DIFFERENCES EXISTED

By Associated Press.

Washington, July 17.—Dr. Edward Pratt, chief of the commerce department bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, resigned tonight at the request of Secretary Redfield. No reason was announced, but it is known wide differences have existed between Mr. Redfield and his assistant over the administration of the export control clause of the espionage act.

As chief of the bureau Dr. Pratt was in active charge of the operation of the government's control of exports which went into effect Sunday morning. He had just organized and started working a division of export licenses, with C. A. Richards, a New York exporter, at its head.

NOT LA FOLLETTE'S FIRST ATTEMPT TO HINDER LAWS

HE BITTERLY OPPOSED CONSCRIPTION BEFORE AND DELAYED WAR DECLARATION.

By Associated Press.

Washington, July 17.—Plans of the leaders of both parties in congress for quick action on the administration's aviation bill, providing a great program for striking at Germany through the air, promised tonight to be blocked by a small group of senators, including LaFollette and Gronna, who are planning to reopen the question of conscription.

An agreement to meet at 10 o'clock tomorrow in order to take up the bill was made in the senate with the hope of a final vote before the food bill debate is resumed under the rules at noon, the usual meeting hour. That hope virtually was abandoned, however, when the purposes of the measure's critics became apparent.

Senator Chamberlain, manager for the bill, said he did not believe it could be passed tomorrow "without considerable discussion later."

Bill Is Urgent.

Sent to congress with the urgent request that consideration be expedited to avoid unnecessary delay in launching the program that officials say will turn the balance of power in the air against Germany, the bill was passed by the house last Saturday without a roll call, and today was reported favorably by the senate military committee without amendment and by unanimous vote.

Democratic and republican leaders joined in the plans for hastening final congressional action and, until Senator LaFollette and his assistant indicated their intentions, there was every hope that the measure would be in the hands of the president before tomorrow night.

It is understood that those who will object to passage tomorrow will direct their attack against the provision that empowers the president to draft men into the aviation service. The leaders expect that as a result the whole question of conscription will be reopened, greatly delaying the bill.

Senator Chamberlain said tonight an overwhelming majority of the senate is favorable to the bill and is anxious for immediate action.

MEANWHILE DELAYS HALT FOOD BILL IN SENATE—COMPROMISE

By Associated Press.

Washington, July 17.—Sentiment in the senate for compromise in the food control bill apparently crystallized today on a group of amendments drawn up at joint conferences of democratic and republican leaders.

While on the senate floor another day was spent in criticism of the defense council and other executive bodies reprints of the bill were made embodying the leaders' proposal which are expected to remove any basic objections and develop general support. Principal revisions recommended by the leaders include limitations of government control of foods, feeds and fuel, creation of a special board of food administration, instead of administration by an individual, and fixing by congress for a basic minimum price of $1.75 for No. 1 northern wheat.

DUTCH DECLARE NEUTRALITY HAS BEEN VIOLATED

By Associated Press.
London, July 17.—Concerning today's report that four German steamers had been captured or sunk near the Dutch coast by British warships, a Reuter dispatch dated July 16 says: "According to official information it has not yet been ascertained whether the British attack or pursuit of the German steamers occurred within Dutch territorial waters. Eyewitnesses are quoted as declaring the steamers were attacked at least four miles from the coast."

The Dutch naval authorities, it is added, are investigating. Although an official statement regarding the place of the attack still is lacking, the Amsterdam Handelsblad says a dispatch from that city, taken it for granted that "British destroyers violated Dutch territorial waters." The violation, it is stated, "was still worse because the British did not hesitate in their execution despite the danger to the inhabitants of a district which might have been bombarded. The government will not fail to protest."

Hoover Cards Have Arrived in Waco All Loyal Women Are to Sign

BY ANNE AUSTIN.

Every thoroughly live woman has been eagerly awaiting the chance to sign her name to a pledge drawn up by Mr. Hoover. She has wanted to bind herself to something definite. For some reason, known doubtless to the inner circles, the cards which should have been distributed the first of July were not given out until yesterday. They are now ready for the signature of all women who feel the responsibility of the war upon their shoulders.

Mr. Hoover even goes so far as to say that the war will be fought and won or fought and lost, the result depending upon the food situation. He quotes some incredible statistics to prove his point and as laymen are forced to accept the wise man's words. We must do our "bit" and this is the only way, outside of actual participation in the struggle itself.

The woman who carelessly wastes food that would feed a hungry soldier in France is just as much a slacker as the man who feigns color blindness or clutches to a woman's skirts to keep from being drafted.

Where to Go.
So—let's sign the cards. We have until July 24 to do this duty. The cards are at the following places:

WRITING FINIS TO THE CAREER OF BETHMANN-HOLLWEG WHOSE TITLE WAS LITTLE MORE THAN SEVENTY YEARS OLD

By Rupert W. Gillett.

WITH the retirement of Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg as imperial chancellor of the German empire, there disappears from public life a man at once simple and aristocratic. His appointment as chancellor in 1909 was an innovation in the history of that office, for he was the first incumbent to be chosen from the ranks of the ordinary administrative officials. Of his predecessors, Bismarck united the small German states under the hegemony of Prussia. Caprivi won remarkable military distinction. Hohenlohe was a member of the highest nobility, and Von Buelow was a famous diplomatist whereas, Bethmann-Hollweg was just a simple country gentleman, with a title only seventy years old.

Inexperienced in statecraft, Bethmann-Hollweg was called to the chancellorship when conditions in the empire were in a state of unrest, consequently, little was expected of him. But he was an excellent administrative officer. At the age of 30 years he was a Landrat (chief officers of the Kreis, or county) from which position he was promoted, step by step, until in 1905 he was Prussian minister of the interior, and in two years he was chancellor.

Von Buelow's Legacy.

Von Buelow left as a legacy to Bethmann-Hollweg an intricate tangle in the Reichstag over fiscal legislation, together with the Moroccan question, which threatened to involve Europe in war. The new chancellor immediately showed a cautiousness, a lack of the impulsive headiness that characterized the military caste, and a patience with his opponents that pacified the Reichstag and averted the war that the radicals would have brought on over Morocco. Although he has been responsible for most of the labor legislation during the last nine years, he is flatly unemotional. He said in 1910, "Democratization of parliamentary systems in all countries has contributed toward lowering and coarsening political morals." And again, "Political culture and political education are not promoted but suffer in proportion as the suffrage is made more democratic." This attitude has been largely responsible for his recent fall. In the Morocco incident, the military class wanted to secure the African colony for Germany, but Bethmann-Hollweg steadfastly opposed this policy. When he was criticized for his attitude, he threw this rebuke in the face of those who had overthrown Caprivi and Buelow: "A strong man does not need to carry his sword in his mouth."

His Foreign Policy.

One of the most prominent features of Bethmann-Hollweg's foreign policy has been his attempts to bring England and Germany together. These efforts culminated in the failure of the Haldane mission in 1912, when it was realized that the growth of the German navy and the danger of estranging Russia and France from England made such a rapprochement impossible. During the exciting days that followed the Austrian ultimatum to Serbia in August, 1914, the chancellor probably believed that he was exerting his efforts for peace; but with the characteristic German naivete he failed to perceive that in insisting that Austria be given a free hand in dealing with Serbia, the peace for which he was working was one that neither Serbia nor Russia could with honor accept.

It is interesting to study this man's political philosophy. Speaking of the English blockade in his speech to the Reichstag in 1916, he said: "We have a right to use all possible means against this policy of starvation, which is a jeering insult not only to all laws of nations, but also to the plainest duties of humanity." This last phrase in defense of submarine warfare caused the American press to say that his olive branch closely resembled a sword. His peace proposal included a proposition that Belgium be forever freed from French and English influence, that Poland must not be returned to Russia, and that Lithuania be annexed to Germany. When the allies refused to accept these terms the chancellor vigorously blamed them for continuing the war.

Back to Private Life.

Bethmann-Hollweg will now probab-

It would have been infinitely better if a personal canvass of housewives could have been made, but the delay in getting the cards prevented that. The thing to do is to act on our initiative for once and do a good thing without being coaxed. We would not think much of a man if he had to be coaxed to join the army. The name by which we would call him is not a pretty one, but it is feminine as well as masculine.

He Was Far-Sighted.

An ambitious colored man had quit his job and was being granted a new one with another concern, when his employer asked him if he could be ready to commence work in two weeks. He replied: "I fear dat would be difficult for me to be ready in two weeks, but I could be ready in one week shore."

"How's that?" asked his employer.

PUSSY CAUGHT LIVE WIRE AND HALTED CARS WHILE LIFE WAS TAKEN

Oklahoma, City, Okla., July 17.—Interurban and street car service was tied up for ten minutes tonight because a cat chased a rat up one of the iron frames suspending the power cables of a sub station. The cat became hung on two heavily charged wires producing a short circuit which also shortcircuited one of kiddy's nine lives. Linemen removed the lifeless martyr and the cars started.

"Well, in one week I can finish de garden work," was his answer, "but if I is home then one week more de misshouse would be rushin' me into de middle of house cleanin'."—The Christian Herald.

Listen to me! If you want to enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced, just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight. Your druggist or dealer sells you a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone under my personal money-back guarantee that each spoonful will clean your sluggish liver better than a dose of nasty calomel and that it won't make you sick. Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working; headache and dizziness gone; stomach will be sweet and bowels regular. Dodson's Liver Tone is entirely vegetable, therefore harmless and can not salivate. Give it to your children. Millions of people are using Dodson's Liver Tone instead of dangerous calomel now. Your druggist will tell you that the sale of calomel is almost stopped entirely here.

SHORT ONES.

Bumper crops for America! Another bump for the Kaiser!

Illinois man admits he doesn't know name of the girl he married. Maybe the girl's name is Aphasia.

Let this be the open season for German spies.

In the dispute between young Mrs. Gould and her mother as to whether the mother is dead or alive, our bets are down on the mother.

Suffragists will have realized an old age ambition when men wear kilts and women put on overalls.

CLEANING UP AUSTIN STREET.

THE coming of the army camp will congest Austin street still further. The double rows of autos lining the curbs has made traffic so slow that extreme congestion already results during rush hours.

If Austin street were freed from standing autos traffic on that street would move 100 per cent faster. Various merchants will differ as to the effect on the business prosperity of the street. They should be consulted.

The city commission should consider a new or amended traffic regulation ordinance. Before drafting the ordinance in final form, however, the commission should ascertain the majority opinion of the business houses on Austin street between the square and the Eighth street.

Such is the motive of a petition now being circulated.

THAT LARGE ELGIN LIE.

THAT federal grand jury at Chicago indicted nobody for gambling in foodstuffs and its final report indicates fatty degeneration of backbone and general anaemia, as do most official food investigations, but it makes some announcements that should touch housewives all over the country, in making a definition of Elgin butter.

Once a week, a few traders in butter go from Chicago to Elgin, Ill., and trade an average of fifty-one tubs of butter. It takes about fifteen minutes, but it establishes butter grades all over the country.

The housewife at Waco, for instance, pays a fancy price for "Elgin" butter that has been made right in Texas, but the price of which has been fixed by Chicago dealers in their weekly visit to Elgin, and, of course, the price of all butters depends upon the price of "Elgin."

If the housewives of America should gather around a faro lay-out, they might be arrested, and they would surely lose social standing, but they stand for the shell game put up by the little gang of Chicago gamblers in butter.

"Elgin" is one of the trade lies that ought to be nailed.

HOW WOULD YOU RATHER BE BUMPED?

WHICH would you rather do—fall several times a day at $1,342.75 a fall, or get bumped by a street car at $100 a bump?

In other words, would you rather be Charlie Chaplin or a bundle-laden father of a family whose foot slipped while he was trying to get home for the evening meal in time to spend an hour afterward in his war garden?

The British movie artist who has become rich by capitalizing the falling sickness has just signed a new contract for eight pictures at $1,075,000. That's $134,375 a picture. On the liberal estimate of 100 tumbles for every time he sits down on a chair that isn't there and pretends to be hurt when, as a matter of fact, every small boy knows he enjoys it.

Street railway damage payments, excluding deaths and serious injuries, average less than $100.

Of course, there's one thing about it. Federal income tax experts have not yet reported whether Charlie really receives the million in question. But then—the hundred dollars the court awards the man bumped by a street car may not be real money, either, if the company appeals.

Can it be that it is more profitable to act in the movies than to hurry home to hoe war beans?

DOLLARS ARE BULLETS.

If you were getting paid in bullets every Saturday night, you'd not be blowing in your bullets for foolishness, would you?

Not in war time, anyhow. Well, dollars buy bullets. Your pay envelope is full of bullets.

There's only one direction in which to shoot bullets now—at the German despotism.

Every bullet in America is needed at the front.

You know that, surely. Then don't shoot any bullets in any other direction.

Make every dollar count in the war! That means no wasting of dollars. And no wasting of pennies, either, for dollars are made of pennies.

Get the saving habit. Salt your money away—not in a sock or a hole in the ground, but in a place where it can work.

Nobody buries bullets. Bullets are only good when they are put in guns. Put your money where it can shoot. Put it in a bank. Give it a chance.

Don't handle any of it loosely. Save it!

We are at war and war is no funny business. You have no more right to be reckless and careless with your money than anybody else has. This is everyman's war and it's up to little Mr. Everyman to buckle down and do his best.

KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES—There Was a Reason.

WHAT MA SAW

By DR. FRANK CRANE

Behind every glow is burning. Behind light is heat. And behind all helpful influence is sacrifice.

The sun's light is gentle and life-giving; we bask in its rays, the little flowers look up and love it, and the green earth rejoices. Yet behind the wide and welcome glow, at the central spot whence emanates this comfortable and mothering sheen, there are what roaring flames, boiling of molten rock, cataclysmic and violent fires! So the secret of influence is sacrifice.

What good you do is measured by how much you are burning. The power of your love ray is in proportion to the conflagration within your heart. The painter is great when he dips his brush in the fountain of his blood. The author lays his compelling mind upon the lives of thousands when he has written by the light of his own soul burning.

The actor touches you when he pours out his life into his role.

Mothers are so great because they consume their lives so fully to their children.

Peace, comfort, progress, civilization, somebody must keep up the fires for these.

This so great America, with its rushing trains, humming factories, fruitful farms, busy schools, offices, and markets, what is it but the bright light caused by the burning up of human souls, labor, the consumption of lives? And in heaven, it is said, "the Lamb is the light thereof." For all the beauty and bliss of the place is but the radiance of the great sacrifice.

The spirit of the man is the candle of the Lord, is the saying. It sends out light and power only when it burns.

There is deeper analogy than we suspect in Shakespeare's couplet:

"How far that little candle throws its beams! So shines a good deed in a naughty world."

S. T. informs us that Mariouche is a Russian name and that we have no right to use it for our Italian street piano heroine, the wife of Sylvester. But it came about this way: Mariouche was born in Russia of Italian parents and she was named in honor of a Russian princess who was very good to the family. We hope this will explain everything.

After sitting through another ten-reeler we are more than ever of the opinion that old P. T. was right. If they loved to be humbugged in his day, they simply adore it now.

By the time they use up a thousand feet of film telling who directed and photographed the thriller, we are always ready to call it a night's work and go home. The picture itself is only incidental to the announcements.

"HETTY"

BEGIN HERE

Hetty Anderson, 22, leaves Rogers after her mother's death, comes to Waco, and meets a rather fascinating woman, Mrs. Nell Brady, who has left her husband for "Billy" Matthews, a well-to-do man about town. When Billy takes Hetty into his home, she falls in love with him and he falls in love with her. Hetty's desirability finally provokes Billy into a proposal of marriage, but he tells her that he cannot promise to be true to her after marriage, but will try to be. She leaves him in disgust.

Hetty conceived a strong dislike for her employer at the Bethlehem Machinery company, Durham, and the president of the company, Baker, the son of a friend of her father's, "Sunshine" Jackson.

Hetty impulsively offers her hundred dollars of insurance money to pay salary for the summer, but she finds her most the sole support of a law family.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

It was six-thirty when the cars began to honk from the curb. Mrs. Durham had come for her husband and one of the Baker boys in a long rakish looking car was insisting that his father join him. After a few minutes of the noisy duet, the door opened and the three men appeared.

Jackson was walking with a cocky swagger ahead of the others. His nonchalance was plainly assumed. Baker came next, a flush staining his prominent cheek bones and making his eyes look fiercer. His heavy eyebrows were drawn tightly together, the coarse white hair bristling repulsively.

Hauteur and anger were patent, and I thought I could detect a trifle of fear and anxiety. Durham, headed, his hair disheveled, brought up the rear. His blond face was dyed crimson, whether from heat anxiety or anger I couldn't tell.

Jackson stopped in my office to get his suitcase and the other two men pressed out together.

"Well, go over those figures again tonight, Durham," I heard Baker remark as they walked off.

The men had ignored me, as I knew they would. Now I began to get ready to go. From my knowledge of Jackson, I knew that I would have the story before I left.

"I wish to the Lord I could get enough ahead to work on my own," Jackson ejaculated explosively as he opened his suitcase and took out his suitcase. "I'm so damned tired of taking things off that overbearing job."

He came over to my desk and took his seat on the edge of it, a favorite attitude. "Don't you ever let 'em get your goat as they have mine. They think they own me, but by the Lord Harry, I'll show them some day. Trying to tell me that I ain't earning my salary!" he muttered indignantly and I felt keenly sorry for him. He crossed his short legs, nursing a knee as he talked. "Course I know that business is hard, but I ain't my fault. It's Baker's tightfistedness. If he's willing to do things up in style, we salesmen wouldn't have to pull orders out of customers like we was pulling eye teeth. Why, I got so ashamed to walk into some places, I plaster the very life out of them, seems to me."

The force is so short here in the office that when they do give an order they have to wait a week before they get the goods, and the invoices are wrong sometimes, and maybe the account is all figured up wrong. They jump on me with both feet everywhere I go. I say, 'Look here, I ain't the don't run the office and sell the goods, gonna hold the only one they know responsible and I can't do a damned thing about it. I have just talked to Baker until I am red in the face, and what good did it do? Mighta been talking to a stone wall. 'Save money,' he croaks, 'cut expense,' he sings in his sleep. And yet they want orders to keep coming in at the rate of a thousand a week from me! It can't be did."

"Have you had much trouble since I've been here?" I inquired anxiously.

"Nope. It was that poor kid, Miss Hadley. She wasn't fit to work. She'll croak in a year or two. Won't last long the way she's going now. But they oughta had a bill clerk here all the time. It's too much work for one girl to do. And," he lowered his voice so that young Baker in the next room could not hear, "they need a bookkeeper that is a bookkeeper. He ain't taking no interest in this business and never will. It would be real money to pay him seventy-five dollars a month to stay away from the office. And, Good Lord! How do they treat a customer when he drops in from a little town? We pass him the glad hand I guess and wish him a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year? Sure we do—not. Old man Stephens who owns the biggest hardware store in Ballinger was in here last week, he told me, and dropped in. Thought as how his account was big enough to make them glad to see him. Nobody remembered anything about his account. 'Anything I can do for you?' Grant Baker asked him, as sweet as lemon," mimicked Jackson.

Little Man Stephens shuffles around a little and finally buys a monkey wrench he doesn't need so he won't have to apologize for intruding on their privacy. 'Good Lord!' He swears himself down from the desk, carefully smoothed his cheek trousers and took his suitcase. "Guess you think I'm some little mourner. But this darned office has just about got my goat." He laughed apologetically and held out a hand.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Jackson. They have given me Miss Hadley's place and I shall try to make as few errors as possible. Maybe I can make things look a little better in that line." I was genuinely sorry for the little man who had just been spanked by his employers.

"You're a peach, girl," he brightened. "When the old courtessels come in, I'll send 'em around to you."

Letters from the People

To the Editor:

I have just returned from a trip to some of the cantonments east, and I heard some very good about the Raleigh of our city. I want to call your attention to it.

The officers, whom I had the pleasure of meeting and the hotels where I stopped were all saying something about the Raleigh. This man, this man, me feel particularly good, as I believe that a good hotel is the greatest advertisement that a city has. I want to call your attention to it.

I think the home people should know how well the Raleigh is doing. I think with the traveling public, I think the reason why Howard Payne wrote "Home Sweet Home" was because of the Raleigh. Had this celebrated poet lived now and had the pleasure of staying at places like the Raleigh and knowing a bonfire like fellow he would never have written that sweetest of all songs, "Home, Sweet Home."

Yours very sincerely,

R. S. LAZENBY.

CAMP KUMBAK.

To the Editor:

Kamp Kumbak is an echo and a memory only now. So swiftly do our pleasures, happy-sports, go that it is almost longer in the shadow-flecked and dusty little path to the Bosque filled with a laughing procession of girls on their way for a swim. No longer does the whistle sound the call to arms and legs to "do their bit" of splashing and kicking. No longer do the vesper prayers, the matin songs, the smoke of brooding bacon, rise to wait them to heaven. The quiet stars do not serenely, the various camps, over fifteen or twenty girls, the open with carefully placed, the chaparral, olive-green noses gleaming in the soft shine of the moon. "Snake Valley" characters are no more. No more the midnight cries of the Antislavery Dancers, rouse the slumbering "Fifth Avenue" dancers from a blissful dream of onion-and-stew-made, to frenzied cries of "Quit It!"

"Get the Hood!"

Mary the cook is gone, and the gentle goat who wandered at will over the sleeping feet of the dancers and browsed at will upon their floating locks. Every sweet sport and floating is as the snows of yesterday. But first, last and not least, all they who were of it wish to camping place, the various camps, their heads and bodies, the chaparral, and those that can't get a name with a "Rah!"

MARLIN VOTERS DECIDE ON CITY TAX INCREASE

WOULD IMPROVE WATER-WORKS WITH SLIGHT AS-SESSMENT RAISE.

Special to The News.

Marlin, July 17.—In an election held here today the city council was denied power to issue bonds to improve the water works and buy a fire engine and raise the city tax rate twenty-five cents by a fifteen majority.

Special to The News.

Marlin, July 17.—An election for a charter amendment improving and authorizing the city council to levy and collect an annual ad valorem tax of $1.25 on the $100 valuation of all property in the city in addition to the taxes for school purposes, is being held here today.

The ad valorem tax at present is $1 on the $100 valuation and the additional revenue derived from the increased taxes will be used for the purpose of purchasing fire engines and other apparatus for extinguishing fires, for the improvement of the water works system and other permanent improvements. If this election carries the purchases and improvements will be made or financed by bond issues with the consent of the voters of the city. A site for a new reservoir which will be of more than double the capacity of the present one is now being considered and it is hoped that in this way the water supply can be greatly increased. The supply has been inadequate for domestic purposes, located in the Brazos bottom and carrying an enormous percentage of minerals for their supply. Upon investigation of the advisability of installing a softening plant, city officials were advised by one of the largest manufacturers of machinery for this purpose in America, that it was inadvisable.

PEOPLE OF REED'S LAKE NEAR TEMPLE ENJOYING 3 DAYS ANNUAL PICNIC

Special to The News.

Temple, July 17.—The twenty-third annual picnic given by the people of Reed's Lake otherwise known as Burgess, seven miles south of Temple on Little River will hold forth for three days commencing yesterday with Geo. This year may improvements have been made at the lake, a large stretch of bathing beach having been provided, bath houses erected and bathing suits available. Spring boards are plentifully in evidence and many additional facilities provided.

TEN MINUTE TEMPLE STORM PLAYS HAVOC WITH WIND

Special to The News.

Temple, July 17.—Following a day of sultry, oppressive heat a violent rain began falling here at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon accompanied by a high wind which inflicted considerable damage of a minor nature. A new plate glass front in the jewelry store of M. Oppenheimer on First street and Avenue B was blown in and shattered by the storm. Trees and shrubbery were broken down. Many signs torn loose in the business section were blown around the streets. The violence of the storm expended itself in about ten minutes.

LAMB COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOLS IN CONVENTION

Special to The News.

Littlefield, July 17.—An interesting convention of the Lamb County Sunday School association was held here yesterday in all day session, dinner being served at the noon hour. The attendance was large, filling the spacious auditorium in the public school building to the limit. Officers elected for the current year are as follows: President, M. Dotson, Olton; secretary-treasurer, Miss Beatrice Vore, Spring Lake; vice presidents, Mrs. Fred Schrier, Olton; C. J. Dugan, Littlefield and Mrs. M. E. Cleavenger, Spring Lake.

TWO TEMPLE BOYS IN BRITISH DRIVE AT YPRES, BELGIUM

Special to The News.

Temple, July 17.—Two Temple boys are in the thick of the fighting at Ypres in Belgium, where the British made their big "push" recently. They are Drury and Ross LaPrelle, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Don J. LaPrelle, and in letters to their parents keep them informed of what is going on as far as the censor will permit them. Both of the boys have been in the fray for the past six months, having gone straight to Europe from the Mexican border when Pershing's troops were withdrawn from that theatre. They served on the border in the motor truck corps and both are driving cars for the allies in Belgium. Drury LaPrelle is the chauffeur for officers, taking them from point to point along the front, while Ross LaPrelle is driving a supply truck. The occupations of both boys frequently take them into the fire zone and they often find themselves facing ticklish situations. They report that some portions of Belgium are desolate and in utter ruins, while in other places natural conditions prevail. All of the inhabitants wear gas masks, even including little children, and letters from the boys say that this gives a grotesque appearance to the people.

MARRIED IN DALLAS.

Temple, July 17.—Temple friends were pleasantly surprised today to learn of the marriage at Dallas Monday of Huling P. Robertson Jr., of this city to Miss Wilhemita Pegram of that city. The ceremony occurred at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Scott of 414 Cedar Springs road and was performed by Rev. Charles Clingan, rector of the Church of the Incarnation.

HARVEY YOUNG, JUNK DEALER, ROSEBUD, SHOT R. BOSEMAN ON BOND

Rosebud, July 17.—Harvey Young, a junk dealer, was killed Friday afternoon here. The shooting took place in the shop of the deceased, and there were but two or three eyewitnesses to the tragedy. He received three wounds, one in the heart, another in the shoulder, and his right arm was broken. After being shot he ran out of the back door of his place of business, but fell dead at the rear door of John Flores' pool hall.

Soon after the shooting Rufus Boseman surrendered to the officers. He was given an examining trial and bound over to wait the action of the grand jury, his bond being placed at $2500.

TEMPLE PHYSICIAN NAMED MEDICAL HEAD RED CROSS

Special to The News.

Temple, Tex., July 17.—The selection of Dr. Mark E. Lott of Dallas as medical director of the Red Cross hospital unit organized in Dallas for service in France is viewed with utmost approval in Temple where Dr. Lott is well known and where he resided for a number of years. While in Temple he was house surgeon for the Santa Fe Hospital Employees Association of which Dr. A. C. Scott of Temple was chief surgeon. From Temple Dr. Lott went to Stamford where he was the head of a surgical institution, later entering the service of the M. K. & T. railway as chief surgeon at Dallas.

SLIGHT RAIN AT MARLIN, FALL WAS GENERAL IN OTHER SECTIONS

Special to The News.

Marlin, July 17.—Light rain fell here yesterday and reports from the eastern, western and northern portions of this county indicate that it was general over the entire county but not enough precipitation to be of great value was reported from any point. A good rain must fall soon or a large part of the cotton crops will be almost a total failure.

Mount Calm, July 17.—Beginning July 1 an Associational Institute was begun at the Baptist church in this city, conducted by Doctors A. B. Copass and J. B. Tidwell, the result of which led up to a revival series the following week, conducted by Dr. J. B. Tidwell, which came to a close last night, the closing service bringing eight additions to the church. The visible results were eighty-two accessions to the church. Forty-five were baptized Sunday evening and there are 12 more candidates to be baptized. As a token of the appreciation of Dr. Tidwell's services a free will offering of more than $100 was presented to him this morning by the membership of the church. The pastor, Rev. B. T. Goodwin, will go to Prairie Hill Wednesday to engage in a meeting at that place.

OLD NAV STYLE WHAT OUTWITTED ATZMEN—POP

BY POP BOONE.

An infectious laugh and a flat-wheel ball were the two outstanding features of the Tuesday game at Katy park—the game that was captured by Waco 5 to 2.

The laugh was tacked on to about 250 pounds of good nature that occupied two or three seats in the grandstand. That it brought luck to Waco can hardly be denied, for as long as it was working the Naves sailed through sunny seas. And, as soon as the laugh blew up, the flat-wheel ball made its appearance. And when the flat-wheel ball made its appearance a perfectly healthy ball game got mighty sick.

Dick Blunt pitched a grand game for seven and one-third innings. His splitter was working perfectly in the opening innings and after that all he needed was enough control to keep the Panthers swinging.

Just whether there was anything the matter with the said ball or not will probably never be determined. Nearly every player who examined it said it was a perfectly good ball. But Blunt got it in his head there was something the matter with it. Anyhow, the pitcher heaved two straight balls wide of the plate. Not a strike in walking three men. And in between each ball heaved he looked at the ball, shook his head, appealed to the umpire and to the bench for another ball. Then he would step on the rubber and heave another one wide.

Once upon a time I heard a ball player tell about a "drunk" ball. He said he saw a game lost by a left-hander who packed a world of stuff. This left-hander had so much stuff that the opposition couldn't even foul one out of the park, and, as luck would have it the ball that started the game stayed in until about the seventh or eighth inning. According to the story teller, it had been curved so much by this time that it actually became "drunk," became uncontrollable and lost the game for the left-hander.

I don't know whether this ball yesterday was drunk or not, but it's a cinch something was the matter with it. This was proven when Eddie Donalds relieved Blunt after the latter had walked the three men. Donalds started the apple in the same grooves it had been traveling for Blunt—either a few inches inside or a few inches outside. Donalds heaved seven straight balls wide of the plate—which made a total of nineteen wide ones without a single strike. Eddie then slid on straight down the groove. Another ball followed, which forced in another run.

Hayes then called in the offending ball. That wasn't all he called either. He called down on his much-abused bean much-pent-up wrath from the Fort Worth ball club. Jakey Atz already had been shouted out of the park, but he wigwagged in a protest, which Stow intercepted and filed with the ump—a protest based on the changing of a ball that had been in play an inning and a half, though it is hard to figure what effect that could have on the matter, as a line drive hit by Tretter and which Grubb made a spectacular spear of might readily have flattened the apple.

Anyhow, as soon as Donalds got hold of another pill he made short work of the inning on a couple of pop-ups.

From any angle, however, the best club won the game. Twelve lousy swats—no scratches, mind you—including five doubles rolled off the bats of the home club, and they played a bang-up game in the field, ran the bases like our old-time Naves and generally looked better than they have in four weeks.

They welcomed Redford like a long lost brother. After Miller had been struck out in the first inning, Wetzel rang the left-field palings for a double. Leslie sandwiched in another strike out, but Jesse James doubled to the clubhouse. Tanner singled and Kircher, scoring James and took second on the throw to the plate. Grubb also singled and Tanner scored on one of the most spectacular plate plays imaginable. Williams' throw was wide of the plate, but Gray dove into Tanner's spikes head-first and missed his tag by a bare inch. Tanner's slide took into account every angle of the play and was absolutely perfect, the toe of one foot barely dragging across the plate.

A walk to Blunk, a double by Miller and a single by Leslie scored another run in the second. Waco's fifth run followed a double by Conwel and a long single by Vann.

She names his third wife as co-respondent, on the ground that his third marriage was illegal. He obtained a Reno divorce from her.

MARLIN COUPLE WEDS.

Marlin, July 17.—Miss Mary Nell Cook and Mr. Fannie Robertson of this city were quietly married in Kansas City Saturday. A telegram announcing this event came as a complete surprise to relatives and their many friends.

BY ROBERT L. RIPLEY.

Johnny Kilbane, the world's featherweight champion, who meets Benny Leonard, the world's lightweight champion, in Philadelphia on the night of the 25th, is one of the most likeable and interesting characters in the history of the prize ring. Kilbane almost misses his calling. The Kilbanes were a poor family, and when Johnny's father became blind about thirteen years ago, he devolved upon Johnny the only child, to assume the family burden, which he did like a little man. He left St. Maachi's school in Ireland, and only another year to go before he would have graduated, in order to support himself and his father. He obtained a position as timekeeper on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh ore docks, and for a few years managed to keep himself and his father's family comfortably. And to this day the Kilbanes neighbors tell of how little Johnny used to lead his father about when he was through with his work each evening. On Sundays and holidays, the pair were inseparable. His devotion to his father won hundreds of friends for the then future champion. And that same affection and dutiful consideration is still kept up. Johnny and his dad are frequently seen together, arm in arm, on the streets now when the champion is at home.

When the Great Lakes ore shipping season closed each winter little Johnny had to look elsewhere for winter employment, and right here is one of the darkest seasons of Kilbane's career. Johnny's boyhood ambition was to be a champion boxer—shades of Cartoonist Webster! He was a very adept pun at the time, and he ran art and spent all his spare moments at the ore docks mastering the intricacies of the various boxing stances, and in Irish reels and jigs, and dancing in a few well-selected "come-alongs" displayed first class talent. "A dancer" at one of the famous amateur nights at the old Empire Theatre in Cleveland, and, struck every man, he didn't get the hook.

Spurred on by the success of his maiden effort as a boxer, Johnny left his work at the ore docks, and he took lessons in the art of vaudeville. He had taken lessons on the violin, and also knew his way around in the art of dancing. He decided to make Sylvester Schaefer, a local professional performer, look new worlds.

One season on the road, however, convinced Johnny that there were a lot more exciting things in life than the life of a vaudeville artist. He decided to try his luck in the game. Dunn wanted a sparring partner and he wanted a man who had never had experience in the game. Kilbane readily assented to assist Dunn in preparing for a coming bout.

Kilbane realized immediately that the boxing game would give him all the excitement he craved and he became a great fan. He attended every bout he could and got as close to the ring as he could. He didn't see any particular difficulty in mastering the manly art and he determined to try his luck so quickly that within a few months Dunn renounced his own ring career to devote his entire attention to his protégé and it was Dunn's patience and the interest he showed in Kilbane that enabled him to reach the coveted goal of featherweight champion.

On his last visit to New York Kilbane entertained the members of the White Horse club with a song and a dance. Corse Clayton, America's best actor, when Johnny renounced the stage for the roped arena.

OUTFIELDER GRAHAM AWARDED TO WACO

Manager Ellis Hardy received word yesterday that Outfielder Graham, now playing with Dallas, had been awarded to the Waco club by the National board. The matter has been in controversy since the player reported to Dallas.

The deal for Graham was made by Manager Hardy before the Three-I league blew up. Manager Hardy accepted terms on the player and wired for him to report with Waco as soon as the Three-I league quit. A few days later the Waco management was informed that the deal was called off and that Graham was a free agent.

THIS WOMAN HAS GAINED 30 POUNDS BY TAKING TANLAC

"I AM NOW FEELING BETTER AND STRONGER THAN I HAVE IN YEARS," SAYS MRS. ANNA VULLOTA.

"I have actually gained thirty pounds—just think of it—and I'm feeling stronger and better than I have in years," said Mrs. Anna Vullota of 3729 Phipps street, Denver Colorado, recently.

"For several years, I don't know just how long," continued Mrs. Vullota, "I have suffered with my stomach. I got so I couldn't eat anything but what would pour and the gas would rise up into my chest and throat and almost choke me. After eating even the simplest meal I would feel as if I was suffocated and I would lie in bed. I was nervous and I was not able to sleep. I was so weak and nervous and felt at times like I would be compelled to give up and stay in bed. I managed to keep going by force of will but more than half the time I was barely able to drag myself around. I took every kind of medicine that was recommended to me but kept getting worse and worse until I was discouraged and almost lost hope of finding anything that would help me."

"Honestly, I don't know the time I ever weighed over a hundred pounds until I began taking Tanlac. I read so much about Tanlac I decided to take it and it has almost worked a miracle for me. It has been hard to believe, but it's the truth, I now weigh one hundred and thirty pounds—having gained thirty pounds—and if any one could feed like a new person I do. I am no longer bilious or constipated and my awful headaches are broken up. My appetite is splendid and I can eat anything I want without it hurting me in the least. It just seems that all my food is going into weight and strength for me. My nerves are quiet now, I sleep soundly every night, and as I said before, I'm feeling stronger and better than I have in years and I thank Tanlac for it all."

Tanlac is sold in Waco by Morrison's Old Corner Drug Store under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv.

COLOMEL PURIFIED OF OBJECTIONABLE EFFECTS, AT LAST

SUCCESS CROWNS EFFORTS OF PHARMACEUTICAL CHEMISTS TO RID POPULAR MEDICINE OF ITS NAUSEATING AND DANGEROUS QUALITIES—CALOTABS THE NEW NAME.

A triumph of modern pharmacy that is destined to bless the whole world, from the King on his throne to the humblest laboring man—that is the opinion of druggists who have been watching the sale of the new colored tablet that is wholly free from the objectionable effects of the old-style calomel.

An occasional purifying of the system and thorough cleansing of the liver are absolutely essential to the maintenance of health, and Calotabs is the only drug that gives permanent results. Now that the unpleasant effects are entirely removed, the popularity of the new colored Calotabs will be vastly increased. One low of water—the tongue at bedtime, a swallow of Calotabs, and a good night's sleep and you wake next morning feeling fine, with a clean liver and a healthy appetite. Eat what you please—no danger.

Calotabs are sold in original sealed packages, twenty doses for thirty cents. All druggists are authorized to refund the price if you are not thoroughly delighted with Calotabs.

ARMY CAMP WORK OF Y. M. C. A. AT WACO IN ELABORATE PLAN

Plans for the Y. M. C. A. work in Camp McArthur at Waco are on a broad scale, according to George W. Perkins, chairman of the finance committee of the national war council of the Y. M. C. A.

It is proposed to erect here not only an association headquarters building and a large auditorium for great assemblies and entertainments, but also from five to eight commodious and well equipped structures, each of which will be a social center for several thousand men.

Work already has started in a number of the cantonments. Mr. Perkins writes, and forty-one buildings have been completed and are in use, with sixty-three under construction. Besides thirty-seven army and navy Y. M. C. A. buildings provided by the government or rented. Big amounts of supplies and large numbers of secretaries are being provided to handle all these centers of activity. A large number of secretaries have been sent to France.

PROTRACTED MEETING BY BAPTISTS AT LORENA

A protracted meeting is being conducted by Rev. J. M. Dawson, pastor of the First Baptist church at Waco, at the Baptist church in Lorena this week.

WILL NOT SHIP STOCK FROM JONES AND HASKELL

Information received in Waco Monday from Jones, Haskell and surrounding counties was to the effect that shipments of stock which had been ordered made from that county on account of drought results had been canceled.

The stock will be kept there, as grass and stock water are expected to be much more plentiful. Conditions had become very discouraging, but are expected to improve rapidly both as to stock and crops.

Don't neglect a pain anywhere, but find out what causes it and conquer the cause. A pain in the kidney regions may put you on your back tomorrow. Don't blame the weather for swollen feet. LOCAL BOARDS PLEDGE SUPPORT TO ARMY NEEDS

LUNCHEON AT RALEIGH TUESDAY DISCUSSES PLANS FOR GUARDS' ARRIVAL.

The Chamber of Commerce committee lunched at the Raleigh Tuesday to survey the problems to be met with the coming of the thousands of National Guardsmen to Camp MacArthur.

Captain H. B. Shonk of the United States Quartermaster's department talked. He stated that the camp probably would demand the straining of the full resources of Waco to take care of increased business and knowing the size of his job he welcomed suggestions and the co-operation of Waco citizens. He stated the policy of the army would be to place all supply purchases on a competitive basis.

President Penland pointed out the probability of the need of about 1,000 rent houses, additional boarding houses and the necessity of preventing an inflation of prices of such commodities where the army requirements caused the demand to exceed the supply.

"Captain Shonk is invited to confer with the military affairs committee of the Chamber of Commerce in any case of difficulty, either through extortion or scarcity in the purchase of supplies," said President Penland.

"I particularly wish to call attention to the bond limitation and city extension election to be held July 24. This bond limitation vote does not raise the taxes of Waco one penny, but merely provides the necessary machinery under which the city may take care of its rapid population increase and meet army requirements."

Mayor Dollins and City Attorney Maxwell pledged fullest co-operation on the part of the city government. Committee, stated his committee would so speed to the limit in raising what money would be required from the citizens.

Vice-President McPeak of the Y. M. B. L. pledged the support of that organization. Arrangements were made to enlist the forces of the Y. M. B. L. with those of the Chamber in a one-day campaign to collect funds.

SOLICITING FUNDS FOR ORPHANAGE AT AUSTIN

M. P. Graham, missionary and field secretary of St. John's orphanage, colored, near Austin is in Waco soliciting in an effort to secure $575, which is needed for the buying of groceries.

Soliciting will be from both white and colored. The orphanage is maintained by charity, it is stated. Graham asks for negro orphans to take to the home. There are about seventy-five inmates in the home. Graham has strong endorsements from Rev. J. M. Dawson, Dr. S. P. Brooks and Rev. R. A. Burroughs.

B. Y. P. U. ENCAMPMENT, PALACIOS, ENDS TODAY

The B. Y. P. U. encampment at Palacios, which began July 1, will end tomorrow. Already some of those who attended have returned home. In addition to the bathing and fishing and other amusements there were many lectures. The encampment close will bring back to Waco a large number of B. Y. P. U. and other members who attended.

SOME FARMERS STILL CALLING FOR SEED CORN

Some June corn for seed purposes still is in the hands of the Chamber of Commerce, and some farmers are coming in after the corn. If heavy and general rains come this week it is believed that all this corn, and more, will be used. Large quantities of seed corn have been sold already, together with much feed seed of other kinds. The agricultural committee of the Chamber of Commerce has been very active in providing seed for farmers, giving it to them at actual cost, plus transportation charges.

Nuxated Iron Should Be Used in Every Hospital and Prescribed by Every Physician

Says Dr. Howard James, late of the Manhattan State Hospital of New York and formerly Assistant Physician Brooklyn State Hospital.

It quickly enriches the blood, strengthens the nerves and puts most astonishing youthful power and vigor into the veins of both men and women. It often increases the strength and endurance of delicate, nervous, run-down folks 100 per cent in two weeks time.

Opinions of Dr. Schuyler C. Jacques, Visiting Surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York; Dr. A. J. Newman, late Police Surgeon of the City of Chicago and former House Surgeon Jefferson Park Hospital, Chicago, and other physicians who have tested Nuxated Iron in their own private practice.

In a very interesting and instructive discourse on the great values of plenty of iron in the blood, Dr. Howard James, late of the Manhattan State hospital of New York and formerly Assistant Physician Brooklyn State Hospital, said:

"A patient of mine remarked to me (after having been on a six weeks' course of Nuxated Iron.)

"Say, Doctor, that there stuff is like magic."

"Previous to using Nuxated Iron, I had been prescribing the various mineral salts of iron for years, only to meet complaints of discolored teeth, disturbed digestion, tied up, hardened secretions, etc., when I came across Nuxated Iron, an elegant, ingenious preparation containing organic iron, which has no destructive action on the teeth—no corrosive effect on the stomach, and which is readily assimilated into the blood and quickly makes its presence felt by increased vigor, snap and staying power."

"It is absolutely necessary to enable your blood to change food into living tissue. Without it, no matter how much food you eat, how much water you drink, how much sleep you get, how much exercise you take, you don't get the strength out of it, and as a consequence you become weak, pale and sickly looking, just like a plant trying to grow in a soil deficient in iron."

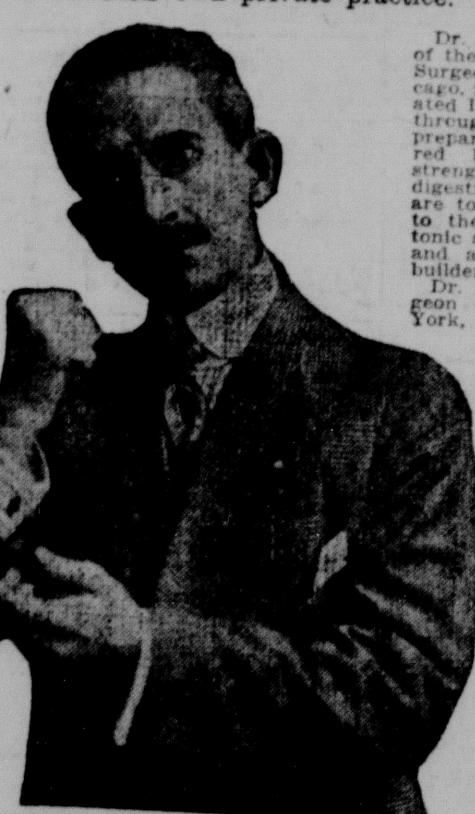

"As I have said a hundred times over, organic iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would only take Nuxated Iron when they feel weak or run down, instead of dosing themselves with habit-forming drugs, stimulants and alcoholic beverages, I am convinced that in this way they could ward off disease, prevent it becoming organic in thousands of cases and thereby the lives of thousands might be saved who now die every year from pneumonia, grippe, kidney, liver, heart trouble and other dangerous maladies. The real and true cause which started their diseases was nothing more or less than a weakened condition brought on by a lack of iron in the blood."

"Thousands of people suffer from iron deficiency and do not know it."

"If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times a day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. From my own experience with Nuxated Iron I feel it is such a valuable remedy that it should be kept in every hospital and prescribed by every physician in this country."

Dr. E. Sauer, a Boston physician, who has studied both in this country and great European medical institutions, was asked what he thought of Dr. James' remarks.

In reply, he said: "I fully agree with Dr. James. People need more iron. There can be no strong, vigorous iron men and beautiful, healthy women without iron. Not long ago a man came to me who was nearly half a century old and asked me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with the blood pressure of a boy of twenty, and as full of vigor, vim and vitality as a young man; in fact, a young man he really was notwithstanding his age. The secret, he said, was taking Iron—Nuxated Iron had filled him with renewed life. At 30, he was in bad health; at 60 he was careworn and nearly all in now at 80, after taking Nuxated Iron, a miracle of vitality and his face beaming with the buoyancy of youth."

Dr. Howard James, late of the Manhattan State Hospital of New York and formerly Assistant Physician Brooklyn State Hospital tells physicians he believes that more Nuxated Iron should be prescribed to meet the great problem of iron deficiency with its attendant symptoms of weakness, nervousness, lack of vitality, paleness, and generally run-down conditions.

WARNS AGAINST USE OF ORDINARY METALLIC IRON so commonly taken by most people.

Dr. A. J. Newman, late Police Surgeon of the City of Chicago and former House Surgeon, Jefferson Park Hospital, Chicago, in commenting on the value of Nuxated Iron, said: "This remedy has proven through my own test of it to excel any preparation I have ever used for creating strength in the muscles and correcting to the public a long-felt want, a true tonic supplying iron in an easily digested and assimilated form. A true health builder in every sense of the word."

Dr. Schuyler C. Jacques, Visiting Surgeon of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, New York, was also asked what he thought of Nuxated Iron. In reply Dr. Jacques said:

"I have never before given out any medical information or advice for publication, as I ordinarily do not believe in it. But in the case of Nuxated Iron I feel I would be remiss in my duty not to mention it. I have taken it myself and given it to my patients with most surprising and satisfactory results. And those who wish quickly to increase their strength, power and endurance will find it a most remarkable and wonderful remedy by effective means."

The next to be consulted was Dr. Ferdinand King, a New York Physician and Medical author, who said:

"I heartily concur in all that Dr. James has said, and in some respects I would go further. Dr. James forgot to mention how foods lose their iron value by improper methods of cooking. In starchy, sugary, tart, salty, candied, polished rice, white bread, soda, crackers, biscuits, macaroni, spaghetti, tapioca, sago, farina, dehydrated corn, and longer is iron to be found. Refining process has removed the iron of Mother Earth from these important foodstuffs. The only safe method of home cooking, by throwing down the waste pipe the water in which our vegetables are cooked, and then adding a little Nuxated Iron to the cooking water, will preserve your food by using some form of organic iron—Nuxated Iron—just as you would use salt, when your food has not enough salt."

NOTE—Nuxated Iron which is prescribed and recommended above by physicians in such a great variety of cases is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known and widely prescribed by eminent physicians and whose iron content is certified by the U. S. Food and Drug Administration. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black nor upset the stomach, on the contrary it is a most potent remedy in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if for 60 days it fails to increase their strength, time provided they have no organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days. It is dispensed in this city by Powers-Kelly Drug Co., W. B. Morrison Drug Co., and all good druggists.
